NIZNANSKY, Ladislav Alfred

12 March 1957

RI file 20-8-5-17y contains a report dated 19 February 1953 entitled NIZNANSKY, Ladislaus Milan, Former CIC-CIS Double Agent. The report states that the Subject was a Staff Captain in the Czech Army until July 1947 at which time he was recruited as an agent-informant by "Section II of the National Defense Ministry" in Prague. In October 1947, he was sent on an espionage mission to Austria. Instead of carrying out his CIS assignment, the Subject reported to CIC Vienna and agreed to assume the role of a Double Agent. After performing extensive service in this capacity, his liaison was disrupted by CIC action in the arrest of two CIS agents. Thereafter, he did not receive any further assignments or contacts with CIS personnel in Austria.
